

Rules

N. of players: -2 players
1 admin

Start the game.
It is thrown a first question and the player who responds more quickly or whose answer is closer to the correct answer, wins.
The player who will answer the question will be the first to click the button.
His lamp will glow.
Each player has 20 seconds to answer the question.
The player who has more correct answers win.

Question 1:
What's the definition of light pollution?

Question 2:
Refere a cause of light pollution.

Question 3:
What are the consequences of light pollution?

Question 4:
From the following option find the solutions to the light pollution:
(a) Cut the water.
(b) Point the light of the street lamps to the ground
(c) Decrease the amount of street lamps in the cities.

Question 5:
What impact has the light pollution on the sea turtles?

Rules

N. of players: -2 players
-1 admin

Start the game:

It is thrown a first question and the player who responds more quickly or whose answer is closer to the correct answer, wins.

The player who will answer the question will be the first to click the button.

His lamp will glow.

Each player has 20 seconds to answer the question.

The player who has more correct answers win.

Answer to 1:

Light pollution is the type of pollution that is originated by the excess of artificial light.

Answer to 2:

Light pollution is caused by street lamps that direct the light to the sky.

Answer to 3:

Energy waste by the cities.

Answer to 4:

(b) and/or (c).

Answer to 5:

The sea turtles can't steer because of the light in the streets.

Question 1:

What's the definition of light pollution?

Question 2:

Refer a cause of light pollution.

Question 3:

What are the consequences of light pollution?

Question 4:

From the following option find the solution the light pollution:

- (a) Cut the water.
- (b) Point the light of the street lamps to the ground.
- (c) Decrease the amount of street lamps in cities.

Question 5:

What impact has the light pollution on the sea turtles?