

Defining terms, auditing practice and identifying priorities

Staying focused on benefits for children and young people

Merging priorities and actions into existing development plans

Listening to parents and learners including through social media

Participatory action research to check milestones, monitor progress and refine actions

A 'roadmap' for parental engagement

Understanding and sharing evidence of impact (intended, contingent and serendipitous)

