It is Sunday. Kelly is leaving England and she is going to Greece with her family.

On Monday morning she isn't going to school, she is going to the sea with her mum and her cat.

In the evening, her dad teaches her music. They have a lot of fun.

That night, she had a very bad dream... All her classmates, who looked like evil ghosts, bullied her.

In the morning, she didn't want to go to school. But her mum wouldn't let her.

At school, she met a boy,
called Bill. He was in her dream, too!

Bill threatened her:
-Give me your food and
leave this place, silly girl!

He was so arrogant and full of himself. He was making fun of her because she was scared.

Kelly felt very bad. She was really hurt.
She felt as if someone had hit her on the face and body.

After school, Kelly went back home and told her mum in tears:
-Mum, I never want to go to school again!
And she entered her room.

After a week, Kelly went back to school and again
Bill said to her:

-Give me...

But Kelly didn't let him
finish his sentence.

-No, I won't! I won't give you my food and don't call me silly ever again!

I'm not silly!

Bill realized that he should leave her alone
because Kelly was not a weak girl.

Kelly got rid of the boy
and she lived a happy life ever since!
